Notes

Travel to Halifax, Nova Scotia to attend the Bi-Annual Federation of Law Societies National Family Law Conference July 21-July 26. Attending the conference will provide Continuing Professional Development "CPD" hours towards the annual required CPD hours by the Law Society of Ontario. In addition to CPD hours the NFLP will provide an update on the latest developments in Family Law and enhance my knowledge to provide legal services in the course of my employment. NFLP is an approved program with the Law Society of Ontario.
Making my own travel arrangements "booking direct" as to avoid any problems in the event changes are required as travelling on weekends when NAN travel coordinator is unavailable.
Travel plan: Depart July 20, drive using personal vehicle Sioux Lookout to Winnipeg, stay overnight Hampton Inn Winnipeg, July 21 fly to Halifax direct and leave vehicle in Hampton Inn parking to avoid expensive airport parking fees while attending the conference. Stay at the Residence Inn Halifax Downtown an approved conference Hotel July 21-July 26. On July 26 return flight to Winnipeg. Overnight in Winnipeg and return drive to Sioux Lookout July 27. This plan minimizes the expense to employer and maximizes the required learning by the employee.
