Notes

There are a couple files uploaded as I booked the most economical flights first and then received permission to change the morning flight to an afternoon flight that was a little bit more expensive. I am attaching all receipt copies and the grand total is $941.92. The initial charge was $550.94 and then the flight that we changed to had a difference of $390.98 owing.

I also attached a copy of the approval for changing the flights.
