Congratulations!

You have now completed all of the requirements for Building Skills in Legal Information and Referral and this is your certificate as a “Legal Information & Referral Specialist”.

We wanted to say thank you again for your interest in the course and for all of your hard work throughout. We really hope it has helped increase your knowledge, skills, comfort and confidence in helping library users address their legal problems.

We hope you will recommend the course to colleagues in future.

It has been a pleasure to work with you and we wish you all the best!
