

Determination of Exemption of an Indian's Employment Income

The CRA uses the term "Indian" as it has legal meaning under the Indian Act.

The term employee on this form refers only to an employee who is registered under the Indian Act.

Fill out this form if you think your income is tax exempt or partially tax exempt. Your employer will use your answers in part 1 to help determine the correct tax treatment of your income.

You and your employer should fill out this form, in addition to Form TD1. You must fill out these forms when you start a new job or if your employment situation changes and the employment income is exempt or partially exempt from tax under the Indian Act. For more information about employee and employer responsibilities, go to canada.ca/tax-filing-form-td1.

Part 1 – Employee information (to be filled out by the employee)

1.1 Are you registered under the Indian Act?

Yes. Continue to Section 1.2.

No. Do not use this form.

For more information, go to canada.ca/indian-status.

1.2 Are you a treaty beneficiary of a First Nation with a final or self-government agreement that ends the tax exemption under section 87 of the Indian Act?

Yes. Do not use this form.

No. Continue to section 1.3.

To confirm the effective date of the agreements and the expiry dates, go to canada.ca/tax-Indigenous-end-dates.

1.3 Fill out your name and address. Continue to section 1.4.

Last name (print) Munson	First name and initials Kevin H. R.	Social insurance number 61617410241312
Address of principal place of residence including postal code 706-233 Kennedy St., Winnipeg, MB, R3C 1T2

1.4 Do you live on a reserve? This means it is your principal place of residence and is the centre of your daily routine.

Yes  No

Employee Certification

I certify that the following information is correct and complete:

- I am registered under the Indian Act
- I am not a treaty beneficiary of a First Nation with a final or self-government agreement that ends the tax exemption under section 87 of the Indian Act
- If I answered yes in section 1.4, I live on a reserve, it is my principal place of residence and is the centre of my daily routine

Signature  Date October 17, 2024

Part 2 – Employer information (to be filled out by the employer)

2.1 Fill out your name and business address. Continue to section 2.2.

Name of employer (please print) Nishnabe-Aski Legal Services Corp. | Type of business Legal ServicesBusiness address including postal code 678 City Rd, Fort William FN, ON, P7J 1K82.2 Employment situation

This section will help you determine whether your employee's employment income is fully or partially exempt or not exempt. For more information on the tax exemption under section 87 of the Indian Act, go to canada.ca/taxes-guidelines-indigenous.

Connections to the reserve:

- If you are a resident on a reserve, this means the reserve is the place where the central management and control over the employer organization is actually located
- See section 1.4 of part 1 to determine if your employee lives on a reserve

What is the situation? (Tick one box only)

- Employee lives on a reserve and you are resident on a reserve. Continue to "Employer certification" because all of your employee's employment income is exempt from income tax.
- Employee lives on a reserve and you are not resident on a reserve. Continue to section 2.3.
- Employee does not live on a reserve and you are resident on a reserve. Continue to section 2.4.
- Employee does not live on a reserve and you are not resident on a reserve but your employee is required to perform duties on a reserve. Continue to section 2.5.

If your employee does not meet one of the situations described above and you still think their income is fully or partially exempt, do not fill out this form. The employment situation may be uncommon. This may result in employment income being treated differently. For examples and to verify your employee's situation, go to canada.ca/tax-indigenous-uncommon-situations or call the CRA at 1-800-959-5525.

2.3 Employee lives on a reserve and employer is not resident on a reserve.*What is the situation?

- Employee performs more than 50% of their employment duties on a reserve. Continue to "Employer certification" because all of your employee's employment income is exempt from income tax.
- Employee performs 50% or less of their employment duties on a reserve. Continue to section 2.6.

2.4 Employee does not live on a reserve and employer is resident on a reserve.*What is the situation? (Tick one box only)

- Employee performs more than 50% of their employment duties on a reserve. Continue to "Employer certification" because all of your employee's employment income is exempt from income tax.
- Employee performs 50% or less of their employment duties on a reserve. Continue to section 2.6.

You are a band as defined under the Indian Act that has a reserve, or a tribal council representing one or more of those bands.

Your employee's duties of employment are in connection with your non-commercial activities carried on exclusively for the benefit of Indians who for the most part live on reserves. Continue to "Employer certification" because all of your employee's employment income is exempt from income tax.

You are an organization controlled by one or more bands as defined under the Indian Act that have reserves, or one or more tribal councils representing one or more of those bands, and the organization is dedicated exclusively to the social, cultural, educational, or economic development of Indians who for the most part live on reserves. Your employee's duties of employment are in connection with your non-commercial activities carried on exclusively for the benefit of Indians who for the most part live on reserves. Continue to "Employer certification" because all of your employee's employment income is exempt from income tax.

2.5 Employee does not live on a reserve and employer is not resident on a reserve but the employee is required to perform duties on a reserve.*What is the situation?

- Employee performs at least 90% of their employment duties on a reserve. Continue to "Employer certification" because all of your employee's employment income is exempt from income tax.
- Employee performs less than 90% of their employment duties on a reserve. Continue to section 2.6.

2.6 Prorating exempt income

The exemption may be prorated if your employee performed some of their duties on a reserve and those duties are not merely incidental to duties they performed off a reserve. The exemption will apply only to the portion of the income related to the duties your employee performed on the reserve.

What is the percentage of the employment duties the employee is required to perform on a reserve? 30 %

Did the employee also fill out Form TD1

- Yes. Continue to "Employer certification."
- No. Ask the employee to fill out and give you Form TD1, and then continue to "Employer certification."

For more information, go to canada.ca/tax-filing-form-td1.

Employer certification

I certify that the information given in part 2 of this form is correct and complete.

Signature

Date Nov. 18th, 2024

If you receive a Form TD1-IN with doubtful information, you should ask for proof from your employee, such as proof of address, or call the CRA at 1-800-959-5525 for assistance. It is an offence to knowingly accept a Form TD1-IN containing false statements.

Personal information (including the SIN) is collected and used to administer or enforce the Income Tax Act and related programs and activities including administering tax, benefits, audit, compliance, and collection. The information collected may be disclosed to other federal, provincial, territorial, aboriginal or foreign government institutions to the extent authorized by law. Failure to provide this information may result in paying interest or penalties, or in other actions. Under the Privacy Act, individuals have a right of protection, access to and correction of their personal information, or to file a complaint with the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the handling of their personal information. Refer to Personal Information Bank CRA PPU 120 on Information about Programs and Information Holdings at canada.ca/cra-information-about-programs.

What to do with this form

- fill out all applicable parts
- employee and employer sign the certification areas
- employer keeps a signed copy for their records in case the CRA asks to see it

What happens if the employment situation changes

Fill out a new Form TD1-IN in the following situations;

- a change in the location of the employment duties, resulting from a new position with the same employer
- a change in the percentage of employment duties performed on reserve
- a change in the employee's residence, on or off reserve
- a change in the employee's residence, on or off reserve

Do not fill out a new Form TD1-IN in the following situations:

- the employee performs seasonal work (for example, snow removal or landscaping)
- the employee performs employment services that depend on the location of the clients or customers (for example, home repair services, social worker, or personal service work)

More information for employees

- To learn about the benefits, credits and requirements that apply to employees whose income is eligible for the tax exemption under section 87 of the Indian Act, go to canada.ca/taxes-benefits-indigenous
- For more guidance on the application of the Indian Act Exemption for Employment Income Guidelines to issues raised by the COVID-19 crisis (working from home), go to canada.ca/tax-guidelines-indigenous-covid19
- Tax-exempt salary or wages paid to employees are not subject to Canada Pension Plan (CPP) contributions. However, an employee can elect to participate in the CPP. For more information, go to canada.ca/cpp-ei-explained-indigenous
- Tax-exempt salary or wages paid to employees are subject to Employment Insurance (EI) premiums. For more information, go to canada.ca/cpp-ei-explained-indigenous

More information for employers

- For more information about various events that might change the employment situation, go to canada.ca/tax-life-events-employees
- For more information about how to report employment income that is exempt under section 87 of the Indian Act, go to canada.ca/tax-14-indigenous
- Tax-exempt salary or wages paid to Indians are not subject to Canada Pension Plan (CPP) contributions. However, an employer can elect to participate in the CPP. For more information, go to canada.ca/cpp-ei-explained-indigenous
- Tax-exempt salary or wages paid to Indian workers are subject to Employment Insurance (EI) premiums. For more information, go to canada.ca/cpp-ei-explained-indigenous