RE: Performance Improvement Plan

This letter shall serve as confirmation that you have successfully mitigated the concerns underlying your performance improvement plan. Amongst other things, you have been available for work as required, have improved your communication and have assisted clients as required.

Please note that I am always available to work with you as required in order for you to maintain these practices and to continue your ongoing efforts. Do not hesitate to contact me for any follow up questions or concerns.

Regards,

Oana Cristea Staff Lawyer
