Notes

Taking advantage of the Chapleau Powwow On Saturday, August 12 2023. This is the time when all Chapleau Cree First Nation members all gather at their community, perfect time to introduce myself and the Legal Aid Program to all members by manning an information booth and displaying all the information we have. When you do community visits in Chapleau, you only have access to the people living on the reserve, whereas in a powwow you get the whole membership. Most of the members live off-reserve but access the Chapleau court and do not participate in a community visit due to the distance of the reserve from the downtown. Hotel accommodation is under Other.
