GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Passenger Inquiries please call 1-800-461-8558

All reservations and tickets expire on the date of travel posted on the ticket. Tickets and reservations are non-transferable. Tickets are non-refundable after date of expiry.

Firm tickets are non-refundable and ticket changes are not permitted.

Ontario Northland will not be held responsible for lost or stolen tickets.

Each passenger must present a printed ticket and valid photo ID at boarding.

Ontario Northland will only be responsible for transportation on its own lines in accordance with its tariff rules and regulations and assumes no responsibility for any acts of omissions of another party or interline carrier.

Schedules and services are subject to change without notice. Ontario Northland may substitute alternate carrier or means of transportation.

Children under the age of eight must be accompanied by someone age 16 and over. No exceptions will be permitted.

Baggage liability is limited to damage only to a maximum of $100.00CAD.

Senior, Military, Student, or other discounts require valid ID or other proof of eligibility.

Ontario Northland will not be held liable for delays due to breakdowns, weather, or other conditions beyond the carrier's control.

Refunds: It is possible to obtain a full refund, except for transaction fees, at a station or agency before the scheduled departure.

Ticket changes: It is possible to change tickets, provided that the fare is of equal or greater value. The customer must pay the difference between the rates. If the new fare is of a lower value, it is possible to obtain a refund of the original ticket and purchase a new fare at the new price. Transaction fees apply.
