GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

For boarding Ontario Northland bus, please show your e-ticket on a mobile or other electronic device; or have a printed copy of the ticket to present to driver. For boarding GO service, instead of tapping a PRESTO Card, simply show your ticket purchased at ontarionorthland.ca when requested.

All reservations and tickets expire on the date and time of travel posted on the ticket. Tickets and reservations are non-transferable.

Ontario Northland and Metrolinx will only be responsible for transportation on their own lines in accordance with tariff rules and regulations and assumes no responsibility for any acts or omissions of another party or interline carrier.

Carriers may substitute alternate carrier or means of transportation.

Acceptance of baggage shall be subject to the applicable Tariffs or other Baggage regulations of the party whose line the passenger is travelling. The parties agree that there shall be no through-baggage service between ONTC and the GO service. Passengers shall be responsible to carry their own baggage.

Carriers will not be held liable for delays due to breakdowns, weather, or other conditions beyond the carrier's control. The parties hereby agree that they shall not be liable for missed, cancelled, or delayed connections.

Wi-Fi service is not guaranteed.

For a full list of terms & conditions please visit ontarionorthland.ca.

Ontario Northland encourages travelers to be mindful of potential environmental, chemical or other allergies/sensitivities of other passengers. Passengers are encouraged to refrain from wearing scented products and to avoid smoking at or about common waiting/loading areas or shortly prior to embarking.

Refunds: It is possible to obtain a full refund, except for transaction fees, at a station or agency before the scheduled departure. Ticket changes: It is possible to change tickets, provided that the fare is of equal or greater value. The customer must pay the difference between the rates. If the new fare is of a lower value, it is possible to obtain a refund of the original ticket and purchase a new fare at the new price. Transaction fees apply.
