Notes

This Cheque Requisition is in relation to my legal insurance coverage. On the invoice it indicates that the full amount for 2023 is $2,906.25 (Premium) plus $232.50 (PST - Provincial Sales Tax). From my calculation, that is a total of $3,138.75. I divided the total by 365 to obtain a daily amount of $8.59931507 to calculate exactly how much does not need to be covered by NAN Legal based on my start date of June 19th, 2023.

From my calculation, 169 days of the year have passed, on June 19th, 2023, with 196 days remaining. Based on that, $1,453.28425 would NOT be covered by NAN Legal. Through my personal chequing account activity, you can see that LawPRO has received a total of $2,641.41 already to date. Therefore, this cheque requisition is for the difference between $2,641.41 and $1,453.28425; that being $1,188.13.

Also, I'm providing the documents in this fashion because I'm not able to obtain the documents showing transaction history from LawPRO directly. LawPRO is experiencing technical difficulties. Based on the news (Okta cyber security breach), I believe they have been hacked. I also mentioned that to the customer representative today and she didn't deny it. It's odd. I think they are being really tight lipped about it because they could be held civilly liable due to the privacy breach.

November and December amounts are still outstanding, but I'll submit another cheque requisition for those amount just before the new year.

Thank you!
