Good evening Negotiations team,

As per our discussion at our internal meeting last Thursday (June 30th), we have reviewed and made edits to the terms of reference for the compensation study and the services agreement.

Please find attached the following for your review ahead of our next internal meeting this Thursday July 7th at 11am EST (10am CST and 8AM PST):

- Updated Terms of Reference for compensation study with alternative language indicated using tracked changes;
- Updated services agreement, with alternative language added. Our language changes are highlighted in green, whereas LAO's changes are highlighted in yellow.

Don/Irene – it would be helpful if you could spend some time this week looking specifically at the services agreement especially in terms of performance measures, how LAO is going to provide support to NAN Legal, and the list of communities served, as you are best suited to provide feedback on these areas.

Thank you and looking forward to touching base at our meeting on Thursday July 7th.

Regards,
Shelby Percival
