Yes, do that instead since you really need the kitchen island. I agree, it is the easiest way to get the product by using your credit card. I will approve your expense claim once I receive it. Thanks, Bryan.

Hi George,

The kitchen island that had been in stock sold last week at Canadian Tire - Kenora. They have ordered another one for us, which will take 10-14 business days to arrive.

I also asked about payment options. I was told they don't accept P.O.s unless we register with Canadian Tire - Kenora for that purpose and they won't take credit card payments over the phone.

Once the kitchen island arrives, maybe it will be easiest for me to make the purchase with my personal credit card and get reimbursed afterward?

Thanks,
Bryan

Can I call in a credit card? Check with customer service if I can do that. Let me know.

Hi George,

With the appliances purchased for the Kenora office in recent months, there is a need for more storage space in our small kitchen.

Attached are pics of the best option I could find: a kitchen island at Canadian Tire (CANVAS Olsen Kitchen Island with Folding Leaf; product # 168-0072-0). Price is $529.99.

Hopefully they still have one in stock. They were down to their last one before my vacation.

If you're ok with this purchase, how should I proceed? Not sure if they would take a P.O. there?

Bryan
